Drawing and Painting – Autumn Term 2016

For ages 5 to 7 and 8 to 12

The Autumn Term will run from Monday 12 September to Friday 9 December with Half Term from Monday 24 September to Friday 28 October

Classes will be held on Thursdays from 4.30 to 5.30pm

For ages 5 to 7: Learn how to make wonderful pictures! An introduction to the basics of drawing and painting. The classes run on a termly basis. Each week children will build on their skills learnt in previous weeks. The class finishes with an informal 'Private View' of student work for friends and family.

For ages 8 to 12: Develop your skills and look at the styles and techniques of the great artists and art movements. Join our art teacher on a tour of perspective, composition, colour theory and mixing, design and a variety of media to improve your drawing and painting and create your own masterpieces! The classes run on a termly basis and finish with an informal 'Private View' of student work for friends and family.

Due to the refurbishment of Lauderdale House, this class take place at Hargrave Hall in Archway, moving back into Lauderdale House after the half-term break on Thursday 3 November.
